

Hesperia Points of Interest

Name	Date	Latitude	Longitude	Cross Streets	Comments
Leroy & June Stratton Home The home was Nick Named Shangri-La Currently HRPD Museum	1926 Current Day	34°25'18.76"N	117°18'21.28"W	On Main St between 2nd and 3rd	June and her daughter Lillian were the lead Artist for the Terry Lee Doll Factory in Apple Valley and would bring home seconds to develop new faces. The building is the 3rd oldest in Hesperia
Hesperia Golf Course	1956	34°24'30.52"N	117°16'5.33"W	On Bangor	The course designed Roy Bearden has been the only PGA course in the High Desert and held 4 tournaments the late 50s early 60s
Hesperia Inn	1954	34°24'40.56"N	117°16'43.10"W	On Sultana in Old Town Hesperia	Numerous Celebrities preformed at the Inn. It is currently Foremost Health Care Facility
Hesperia Arcade & Jack Dempsey Museum	1954	34°24'42.58"N	117°16'38.80"W	On Orange in Old Town Hesperia	The Museum predates the Museum in Dempseys home town Mansa Co. It is currently Foremost Health Care Facility
Old School House Addition	1926	34°25'17.27"N	117°17'52.70"W		3rd oldest building in Hesperia. Currently houses the Little Country Church
Hesperia Air Park/Port	1955	34°22'45.31"N	117°18'49.31"W	On Santa Fe East of the Railroad Tracks	Originally it was a utility landing strip. When M. Penn Philips purchased Hesperia in 1954 he started developing the landing strip into an Air Park with a resonant and apartments
Summit Inn Resturant	Early 1950	34°21'32.90"N	117°26'7.24"W		Burned Down about 2017
Out Post Café	Early 1950	34°24'28.26"N	117°23'53.22"W		Currently in business